

The government should serve the PUBLIC interest, not the private and financial interests of a few.